

Nimbin's State of Origin Bowls: It's a Draw!

What better result for the big field on Sunday 10th June?
 Sunday afternoon bands in July: 8th Sabotage, 29th Mona Lizard; AGM: 5th August.

Nimbin Bowls

Such a gentle, social Geometry; the lob and rolling
 Kiss of hit-and-miss touch
 Of green with a handful of dark
 Weight placed, just so,
 Upon a timed and trodden lawn.
 I have to pause myself, sometimes, to Stop and watch the willing moment
 Of the waiting word roll out
 Slowly, seeking destination.

Nimbin Rocks seem to shift
 Absurdly when approached

Jane Austen could almost Be jealous of this
 Civilisation of muted feral chords
 Modulated from the formal white
 To rainbow toned and shadowed
 Green, blonde, amber, tan.
 This one, and just one more!
 Black and beautiful, trundling on To inevitable, near invisible Gathering.

Headers look competitive mid-season

Nimbin Headers 5th Grade team struggled to defeat an under-strength Bangalow side at home on 30th June, finally running out 3-1 after scoring twice, late in the second half.

The team (at left) is: (back row) Lewis, Jason,
 Jessie, Tom, Reuben, (middle) Ry, Christoph,
 Tom, Chris, Carl. (front) Reuben, Christian,
 Dean, Max, James, goalie: Pete

The 5ths are in 4th place, and are well placed with seven weeks to go, to take a finals berth. Also doing well are the under 12s, undefeated, with most games ending 7-0.

Next home games are on Saturday 14th July from 11am at the Headers field. It's a great day out.
