IT'S SHOW TIME!

Final preparations are well advanced for the 104th annual Nimbin Country Show, 21st-22nd September.

If you haven't picked up a copy of the program yet, you'd better be quick.

Copies are available at many shops and businesses in Nimbin and Lismore, well as on line here: <https://nimbinshowsociety.org.au> and scroll down to the 2024 Show link.

The committee is pleased to announce that admission to the show is free again in 2024.

Here's a taste of this year's attractions:

- Opening by cricket legend and Nimbin local: Lyn Larsen AM
- Wildlife Twins shows
- 1st Lismore Scouts
- Local produce, preserves, quilts, needlework, arts and crafts, photography
- Sustainability Alley
- Heritage and Axe Display
- Brewers Corner
- Machinery and Stationery Engine Display
- Horse events – Saturday and Sunday
- Cattle and poultry competitions – Saturday
- Guinea pig pet show – Saturday
- Games afternoon – Saturday
- Junior iron man – Saturday
- Live music – Saturday
- Novice whip cracking, talent quest – Sunday

- Dog high jump – Sunday
 - Classic Car Display – Sunday
- As a small volunteer organisation, we rely on the support of the community to make each show a success and there are a variety of ways to show that support.
- Whether entering to compete in any of the animal and pavilion classes, donating your time for grounds preparation, or volunteering on the show days themselves, all volunteers and support are welcome.

Please contact: info@nimbinshowsociety.org.au to register your interest.

All art and craft and non-perishable items for judging are due on Friday 20th September, 7.30am-10am.

We look forward to welcoming you to the 2024 Nimbin Annual Country Show.
